

SWITZERLAND

Traditional yet
MODERN

Maura Wasescha

Making your dreams come true

Dreaming about exclusive spaces? Maura Wasescha, the extremely well connected real estate expert from Switzerland, can make your dreams come true. Whoever owns a choice property or is on the lookout for one in typical recreation destinations such as St Moritz need not look further than Maura Wasescha. Whether it's buying or selling houses or flats, renting out or rent yourself, Maura Wasescha is the best choice to offer unparalleled all-round service.

Operating out of St Moritz in the heart of Engadine, Maura Wasescha also serves other scenic holiday regions in Italy and France. Her discerning clients come from Italy, Switzerland, Germany, UK and US.

Customised and comprehensive service is the hallmark of Maura Wasescha's business. Real estate owners entrust her with their properties and investors as well as owners trust her unflinching advice. Maura Wasescha and her lawyers close sales or annual rental contracts efficiently and to the utmost satisfaction of all parties involved.

Residing in Bern, Maura Wasescha's service is professional, personal, and unique. Be it architecture or interior design, traditional values or hi-tech, room service or catering,

Customised and comprehensive service is the hallmark of Maura Wasescha's business. Real estate owners entrust her with their properties, and investors as well as owners trust her unflinching advice. Whoever owns a choice property or is on the lookout for one in typical recreation destinations, such as St Moritz, need not look further than Maura Wasescha closest attention is paid to every minute detail. Dreams do come true thanks to Maura Wasescha.

Though an Italian by birth, Maura Wasescha is a Swiss citizen with several years of experience in the real estate business. Since 1981 she has been specialising in second homes and holiday properties.

"My clients profit from my long experience and connections and have no problem whatsoever renting, buying or selling their property," she says. It goes without saying that the client's name remains strictly confidential while a suitable property is being located.

Maura Wasescha always focuses her undivided attention on the individual client and their personal requirements. She excels at combining five-star service with personal attention.

An excellent companion and consultant, she is always there when it comes to finding a place of your own and putting the finishing touches to your new home.

Maura Wasescha takes delight in typical Swiss qualities such as cleanliness, perfection, and reliability. "I regard Switzerland a seal of approval and the guarantee of quality for my clients."

For more information, please visit website: www.maurawasescha.ch ■

